

THE ANGLICAN DIOCESE OF SABAH

The Church of The Good Shepherd

Weekend Worship Service: 09 Feb 2020

Message from Our Senior Priest

Warmly welcome home to Revd Chan Peng Wah & family! Welcome to COGS, Sandakan! We thank God for raising another fellow servant of His from Sandakan to serve in the mission field at Cambodia together with his family. Thank you very much for taking time to share with us what God is doing in Cambodia as well as the fresh word of the Lord during the weekend services. Praise God for we all are blessed by God through your ministry.

The purpose is for us to be reminded about God's mission both locally and oversea. We thank God for allowing us to be part of His great mission work here in Sabah and beyond. The Lord led me to meet up with Revd Chan in early 2019. That was the time, God reminded me about the time to reconsider the possibility of looking into Cambodia. While I was serving in Labuan, there was a plan to network with the churches in the Diocese of Singapore which are supporting the missionary work in Cambodia. This is because Cambodia is one of the Deaneries under the Singapore Diocese. God opened the door to be connected with the former Dean of Cambodia in February 2019 at Medan. The former Dean also helped by connecting with the current Dean. The Lord had opened the door! Apparently, COGS Sandakan has been supporting the Cambodia work in different capacity over the years. Earlier this year, Revd Chan Peng Wah informed me that he is coming home and asked if there is any opportunity for to share God's work and word. With God's favor & timing, Revd Chan is here to share so that we may know God's work!

Today, it is time to recapture what God is saying to us at COGS, Sandakan with reference to His oversea mission work. We need to take it up not because of what we can do in God's mission. It is also an opportunity to learn how God wants to work through us by doing a small part of His great work. Mission today is from everywhere to everywhere! It is not so much what we can give but also what we can receive. To begin, I need people to come on board to form COGS' Mission Board so that we can pray and plan properly. The main goal will be going for mission exposure & experience trip both locally & oversea. It has to be intentional with clear guidelines and goals so that we can plan and work. It is also to identify and encourage people who may be called by God to go for short term mission internship. Please pray together till God gather the Mission Board members to work under His guidance. May God's name be praised as we fulfill God's commission in Sandakan & beyond!

Canon James Lee
